ABOUT THE EVENT

Running has always been my escape. Whether it be taking out the day's frustration, anger and guilt out on the pavement, or even winding down after a long day. Whatever it may be, running is my passion. It's something I've grown to enjoy doing. The reason I am putting on this race is simple: One, I want to raise the awareness of domestic violence inside our community. And two, I want to share my passion with others in a charitable way. Join me at Heratige Park on Saturday April 13 at 9 a.m. and be ready to Run For Your Life.

ABOUT SafePlace

SafePlace is a nonprofit organization that takes in victims of domestic violence and sexual assault. They provide the victims and their families with free housing, free counseling, and free legal advice. They are in constant need of donations as their rooms are almost always full. If you have any questions about the services SafePlace provides, volunteering opportunities, or donating, feel free to call 360.754.6389 or check out their website at www.safeplaceolympia.org
